

November News

Welcome to the JVI November 2019 newsletter.

From the President - Daniel Kelly

Welcome to the new look Judo Victoria Newsletter.

We plan to provide your club with a newsletter every month. It will contain information and articles of interest for coaches, officials and administrators.

Please pass this information on to your club members.

November is a busy month for JVI.

Preparations are underway for the AGM to be held at the Broadmeadows Aquatic and Leisure Centre. Make sure your club is represented and have a say in how JVI is shaped in the future.

State Championships will take place over the weekend of 30th November / 1st December weekend at Broadmeadows Leisure Centre.

Entries open online on November 11.

This event requires many hours of volunteer labour. How about offering your time for an hour or two?

Contact Sandy - tourndir@judovictoria.com.au and find out where you could help.

We also welcome Robyne Dawson back to JVI. She commenced in October as Administration Officer where she will provide administration support to the JVI Committee. In the December Newsletter we will find out about the Victorian Performance Hub from coaches and athletes.

Sporting Schools - application for funding open

November 30

State Titles Day 1

Sporting Schools is an Australian Government program designed to help schools increase children's participation in sport and to connect them with community sporting groups.

Sporting Schools programs are provided free to children and their families to help students build the confidence and capability to be active for life.

Judo4Kids program is a four to eight session introductory program combining fun and physical activity for primary school children.

Each lesson involves the children learning various Judo terminology in the Japanese language as well as Judo techniques and skills through integrated game play.

Interested Clubs and coaches need to complete a Sporting Schools and Judo

Australia Judo4Kids Club Registration Form.

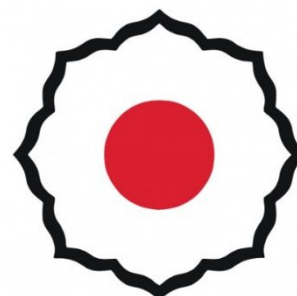

It needs to be sent to sportingschools@ausjudo.com.au before November 11.

Applications for schools to receive funding open then.

Contact Robyne at office@judovictoria.com.au if you need a form.

Congratulations Michelle Matthews!

In 2018, at the OJU Kata course held in Sydney, Michelle passed her 6th Dan. The Kokodan 8th Dans were impressed and have awarded her a Kokodan 6th Dan (Rokkudan) as well. High praise indeed!
